

Notice of Privacy Practices

We are proud to have this opportunity to tell you about our company, our services and our history. In addition, we want our on-line visitors to feel comfortable while viewing our website. We have designed this privacy policy to let you know how we will collect and use information that a visitor may provide to us on-line.

Privacy:

Your privacy is important to us. At Recruiters in Healthcare, Inc we value our visitor's privacy and have made it our policy to provide on-line content that requires minimal collection of information from our visitors. Furthermore, to better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our on-line information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

What We Collect and How We Use It:

We do not require visitors to register or provide any information before entering our website. However, there are several places where visitors may choose to provide personally identifiable information about themselves or other people. When you provide us with information such as your name, address, email address, profession/occupation, we will use it only for the purpose the information was provided.

Recruiters in Healthcare, Inc may also compile and analyze information collected in order to better understand how our visitors use our website. This may include information about number of hits, unique viewers, surfing activity on our site and domain origins. Recruiters in Healthcare, Inc may use a text file called a "cookie" in the browser files of your computer. A cookie is a small bit of information that a website transfers to an individual's computer for record-keeping purposes. We use cookies in a variety of ways to create a more personalized on-line experience for the visitor.

Recruiters in Healthcare, Inc will diligently strive to protect your personally identifiable information and confidentiality. We will not willfully sell, rent, or give away your personal information without your consent (except as required by subpoena or other legal process). We use your information only to determine what products, services, or opportunities may interest you and to provide information about those to you.

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect on-line; however, we cannot guarantee complete security regarding information submitted to, maintained on, or transmitted from our system.

Visitors who request information and other company communications, will receive that information via email, telephone, U.S. Mail, or courier. If you should ever receive unwanted information and prefer that Recruiters in Healthcare, Inc discontinue sending you information, please use this link to Contact Us.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any time and for any reason. If our policy changes, we will update this page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.
